Devoted Health Adds Boca Raton Regional Hospital and JFK Medical Center to Provider Network

FT. LAUDERDALE, Fla. (September 26, 2018)— Devoted Health today announced a new partnership with two of the top medical and hospital facilities in Palm Beach County. Boca Raton Regional Hospital and JFK Medical Center are joining Devoted Health’s growing provider network as the healthcare company prepares to launch Medicare Advantage plans to Floridians in 2019.

Devoted Health chose to partner with these hospitals due to their leadership in providing high-quality care and medical services:

- Boca Raton Regional Hospital is recognized by U.S. News & World Report as a top-ranked regional hospital in South Florida, including being ranked the #1 hospital in Palm Beach County.
- JFK Medical Center has a reputation for quality medical care, including a designation by the Joint Commission as a certified primary stroke center. It is also recognized as one of the 2014 and 2015 Truven Health Top 50 Cardiovascular hospitals in the Country.

“Our new partnership with Boca Raton Regional Hospital and JFK Medical Center further fulfills Devoted Health’s mission to make healthcare the way it should be: caring, affordable, more attentive and easier to access,” said Dariel Quintana, Florida market president for Devoted Health. “The high-quality providers and doctors at Boca Raton Regional Hospital and JFK Medical Center will now be available to Devoted Health members. They are among the top in the state and share our belief in building a better healthcare solution.”

Devoted Health members will have in-network access to providers at Boca Raton Regional Hospital and JFK Medical Center when the healthcare company launches Medicare Advantage plans on January 1, 2019.
