Devoted Health Adds Lakeland Regional Health to Provider Network

FT. LAUDERDALE, Fla. (September 26, 2018)— Devoted Health today announced a new partnership with Lakeland Regional Health in Polk County. Lakeland Regional Health is joining Devoted Health’s growing provider network as the healthcare company prepares to launch Medicare Advantage plans to Floridians in 2019.

Devoted Health chose Lakeland Regional Health because of its recognition as the fifth largest hospital in Florida and its leadership in providing high-quality care and medical services such as geriatrics and cardiovascular medicine.

“Our new partnership with Lakeland Regional Health further fulfills Devoted Health’s mission to make healthcare the way it should be: caring, affordable, more attentive and easier to access,” said Dariel Quintana, Florida market president for Devoted Health. “The high-quality health care providers and doctors at Lakeland Regional Health will now be available to Devoted Health members. They are among the top in the state and share our belief in building a better healthcare solution.”

Devoted Health members will have in-network access to providers at Lakeland Regional Health when the healthcare company launches Medicare Advantage plans on January 1, 2019.
